Severe Snow Storms on the Plains.

APPREHENDED LOSS OF LIFE .-- Mr. McCosh. of Davenport, Iowa, received on Thursday last, a letter from his son, in Nebraska, dated the 5th instant, informing him of the prevalence of terrible storms on the plains. At the date of the letter the snow lay on the ground to the depth of eighteen inches, while in drifts it was several feet deep. The winds had been excessively severe, and it is feared there has been much suffering, if not loss of life on the plains .- St. Louis News.

Lightning During a Snow-Storm.

The Concord (N. H.) Democrat states that on Thursday, the 14th inst., during a brisk snow-storm, a vivid flash of lightning lighted up the leaden atmosphere, followed after a considerable interval by a peal of heavy, rattling thunder. The fluid took the wires leading to the telegraph office in Concord, and came upon the operator with an unceremonious flash and report as of a pistol, and with a heat which melted the wire in one of

MARRIED.

On the morning of the 19th instant, at the residence of the bride's mother, near Goose Creek Meeting House, by Friends' ceremony, SAMUEL N. BROWN, to MARY ANN NICHOLS, daughter of the late Joshus Nichols, of Loudoun county. At "The Manse," in Leesburg, on Tuesday morning, the 19th inst. by the Rev. H. R. Smith, DANIEL T. WOOD, of Frederick county, and MARIAM G. NICHOLS, of Loudoun county.

DIED.

On Friday, the 15th instant, at his residence in Palmouth, Major WILLIAM H. FITZHUGH, in the 71st year of his age. In recording the death drop a tear to his memory, and to mingle our sympathies with those who weep around his grave. Ho was a man after the pattern of the olden time, chivalrous and high-toned in sentiment—courteous and dignified in demeaner—gentle, kind, and sofeeling-upright, honest, and guileless, in all his dealings -he had added to all the virtues meek and quiet christian spirit, which at once illustrates and completes them all. Leaving the pure record of a stainless life, a name and memory honored and beloved by all who knew him here, for the just made perfect in heaven. The exam-ples of the honored dead, are the richest legacies which heaven grants to us on earth.

In Washington, on Friday morning, Miss KLI-ZABETH T. PRICE, late of Philadelphia, in the 65th year of her age.
